Re: United States v. Hubert Dupigny, et al., 18 Cr. 528 (JMF)

Dear Judge Furman —

I write respectfully to request a second 90-day adjournment of Mr. Hubert Dupigny's sentencing — which is currently scheduled to proceed on March 23, 2021 — and the concomitant adjournment of all related pre-sentence deadlines.

There has been little change to the circumstances which prompted my original adjournment request on November 23, 2020, and the Court's order granting same. See Doc. Nos. 327, 328. For example, it remains the case that Ms. Marcus and I have as yet been unable to visit with Mr. Dupigny at the Metropolitan Detention Center, in Brooklyn, and we continue to wait on the return of certain records.

We have communicated with the Government regarding this adjournment request, and the Government has no objection to the application.

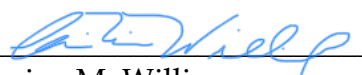

Application GRANTED. Sentencing is hereby ADJOURNED to June 24, 2021, at 2:30 p.m.
Further adjournments may not be granted, so counsel should make every effort to communicate with the Defendant and obtain whatever is needed. The Clerk of Court is directed to terminate Doc. #340. SO ORDERED.

March 3, 2021

Respectfully submitted,
